The Broker/Office Manager shall sign the initial entry form certifying the validity of the entry and that the applicant's credit is correctly stated. In the event that a salesperson and/or broker makes a false claim or gives false information, the applicant and/or the broker may be BARRED from participation in the club and future clubs. The length of the penalty shall be at the discretion of the Membership Services committee after an investigation and hearing.

NOTE: In order to qualify, at least 80% of an applicant's award-submitted sales volume must be from residential-generated transactions. For the purpose of this section, residential means single-family homes, condominiums, farms with houses, multi-family dwellings (up to 12-family) and residential building lots. Transactions that are paid on an installment basis (leases or contracts) or money being deferred for use as collateral pledges may be used to qualify only during the contest year when the company is paid.
